

Homework Policy

All students will start with a 100% homework average in each subject. Homework is worth points that are counted toward a student's average. Please contact me if there are circumstances that make it impossible for your child to complete an assignment. Homework will be given every night. It must be returned to school the very next day unless otherwise noted. Each student will have an agenda planner to write assignments in. Please check your child's planner every night.